

As a small market manager, it seems to me like the proposal would place an undue burden on the small market stations. Many operations in smaller communities are already operating lean, especially when it comes to the area of personnel. The requirement to record and retain would seem to be one that would increase the burden on those who have the least amount of staffing to deal with it.

Tom Rogers

--MMEX71226d72456b50e5c34cf03fa862b1d4--